RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not available for Service with Regular Forces for Home Defence.

[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

This society will act as the agent of the commanding officer. Such societies make no guarantee of any specified rate of profit, but are under a legal obligation to return all profits (less working expenses and 5 per cent. interest on capital) to the customer. The profits, then, will depend on the manner in which the business is conducted, and, therefore, in selecting a co-operative society to which to affiliate the canteen, a commanding officer will first ascertain whether such society is properly registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, and whether, from its method of management and success in similar undertakings, it is likely to make a reasonable return of profits to the customer.
